

The Village of
Golf Manor OHIO
Proclamation

NO. 2015-1

HONORING
YAACOV & CHAVA RABENSTEIN

WHEREAS, on the occasion of the Cincinnati Hebrew Day School Annual Dinner, Bridges Celebrating the Bond between CHDS and Cedar Village Retirement Community, on Sunday, March 8, held at the Mayerson JCC; and

WHEREAS, The Cincinnati Hebrew Day School wishes to thank Yaacov & Chava Rabenstein for their many years of dedicated service to CHDS; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Rabenstein, as a member of the school's board of directors for over 35 years, presided over the explosive growth of the school and many improvements in programs and resources for students. His mentorship and perspective have helped younger members of the school's lay and professional leadership to acclimate themselves to and address the unique challenges the school has and continues to confront; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Chava Rabenstein has ensured students at CHDS have the energy and strength they need to succeed academically through her coordination of the school's lunch program over the last three decades; and

WHEREAS, these honorees exemplify Torah learning and values in their fields as well as in their support and selfless dedication to the Cincinnati Hebrew Day School and the broader Jewish community; and

WHEREAS, the Village of Golf Manor is a better place to live as a result of the contributions of these honorees:

NOW THEREFORE, I, Mayor Alan Zaffiro, declare Sunday, March 8, 2015 as "Yaacov & Chava Rabenstein Day" in the Village of Golf Manor, Ohio.

I ask the community on that day to join us in celebrating the Cincinnati Hebrew Day School honorees.

PROCLAIMED this 23rd day of February, 2015.

Alan D. Zaffiro
